

The debate in the House of Representatives, on the resolution offered by Mr. Clayton, appointing a committee to enquire into the affairs of the U. S. Bank, will be found in our paper to-day—commencing on the first page.