

From the Washington Globe, Saturday, March 10.

In the Senate, yesterday, many private bills were passed, and others matured. The apportionment bill was taken up, the question being on Mr. Forsyth's motion to amend the substitute offered by Mr. Webster, by striking out therefrom the provision for the representation of fractions. Mr. Holmes, Mr. Silsbee and Mr. Sprague, spoke in opposition to the motion, and Mr. White in its support. Mr. Dickerson has the floor for Monday. The Senate adjourned over to Monday.

In the House of Representatives, Mr. Verplanck reported a bill making an appropriation for the publication of certain diplomatic correspondence. On motion of Mr. Barstow, the vote of Thursday, rejecting the amendment offered to Mr. Clayton's resolution for an inquiry into the affairs of the Bank of the United States, which proposed that the Select Committee be chosen by ballot, was reconsidered, Yeas 98; Nays, 93. The further consideration of the subject was arrested, by the expiration of the hour allotted to morning business. Some time was spent in Committee on the bill for the benefit of Mrs. Susan Decatur, et. al. The Committee finally rose, and reported the bill without amendment. The several amendments proposed in Committee, were renewed in the House and rejected.—The question was then taken on engrossing the bill for a third reading, which was decided in the negative—Yeas, 78; Nays, 95, and so the bill was rejected.
