

COMMUNICATION.

COL. RICHARD M. JOHNSON.—The original picture of this distinguished individual is now completed, in Inman's very best manner. It is proposed to have a certain number of lithographic copies struck off for distribution among his friends, the expense of which to be defrayed by subscription. The list of subscribers is nearly full. All who are desirous of procuring a copy, will make immediate application to Messrs. Childs and Inman, at their establishment, N. E. corner of Fifth and Walnut streets.
