

We find the following resolution among a number of others adopted by a meeting at Martinsville Ky. on the 6th Oct.

3. Resolved, That the Hon. A. S. Clayton, of Georgia, merits the gratitude of the American people for his zeal, perservance and ability in developing and exposing the abuses and corruption of the United States Bank; and that the Hon. T. H. Benton of Missouri, also deserves the grateful recollection of his countrymen for his able vindication of the veto of the President, and for the manly opposition he made to the rude and offensive bearing of H. Clay, in the Senate of the U. States in the late debate on the veto.
